Statement

As a participant in the above named course I understand the nature of the activities involved. I recognise the physical and mental demands of paddlesport and of the conditions and environments in which the course will be conducted.

To my knowledge I do not suffer from any medical conditions that may prevent me from participating fully and safely in the course, and in the unlikely event of illness or injury occurring during the course I consent to any treatment deemed necessary by a qualified medical practitioner.

I understand that the above named coaches will accept no liability for loss or damage to property or for injury sustained during my attendance on this course, except where such is caused directly by negligence.

I am able to swim 50 metres unaided in deep water.

I understand that deposits paid for this course may not be refundable should I pull out. If the course is cancelled or postponed by the organiser, a full refund will be available.
